

Introduction to Tzu Chi Foundation

Nov 2018

Tzu Chi Foundation is an international humanitarian organization, “Tzu” means compassion, and “Chi” means relief.

As the world’s largest Buddhist charity, Tzu Chi has offices in 51 countries with five million supporters. Tzu Chi’s missions have reached 95 countries, and is awarded with UN Special Consultative Status.

Tzu Chi was established in 1966 by Master Cheng Yen with “bamboo coin banks” from 30 housewives who saved 50 cents from their grocery money each day. Master Cheng Yen encourages “everyone to continuously do good deeds and purify their hearts.”

Our founder Dharma Master Cheng Yen was awarded TIME 100 Most Influential People in 2011.

In the US, Tzu Chi has provided disaster relief after Hurricane Katrina, Hurricane Sandy, and the California Camp Fire.

The 2011 TIME 100

Meet the most influential people in the world. The researchers, heads of state and captains of industry sometimes even revolution. Welcome to this year

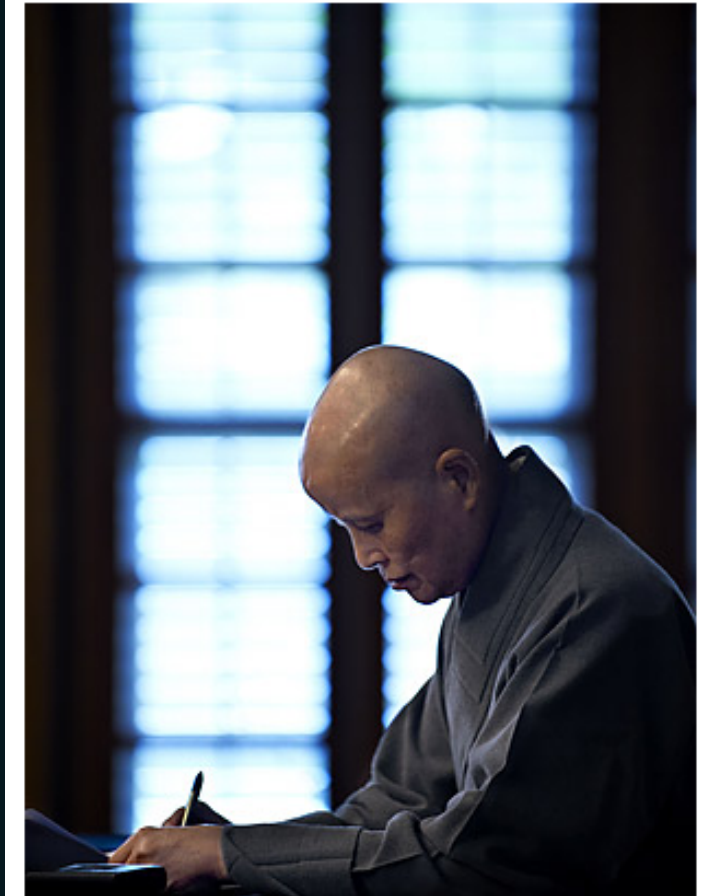

Story

All Best and Worst Lists

Dharma Master Cheng Yen

Spiritual Leader

By ZOHER ABDOOLCARIM Thursday, Apr. 21, 2011

ENLARGE PHOTO+

JUSTIN GUARIGLIA FOR TIME

Bud
ines
pote
Dha
emb
guru
qual
well
nondivis
milli
Tzu
com
astor
whic
disas
Chi
prom
blan
rece
rebu

Tzu Chi's Eight Missions

Charity

Medicine

Education

Humanistic Culture

International Relief

Bone Marrow Donor Registry

Environmental Protection

Volunteers

Mission of Charity

- Breakfast service to the homeless
- Winter package distributions
- Nursing home visits
- College scholarship
- Happy senior program

Disaster Relief

Mission of Medicine

“People became poor due to illness. One person’s illness can impoverish the whole family.”
- Master Cheng Yen, 1966

Medical Programs

- TIMA (Tzu Chi International Medical Association)
- Medical outreach
- Free dental clinic
- Bone Marrows and Stem Cells Registry

Mission of Education

- Tzu Chi University in Taiwan
- Tzu Chi Schools (K-12) around the world
- Tzu Chi Academy in the US
- Happy Campus program for underprivileged school in 10 States in the US

Environmental Protection Program

Mission of Humanistic Culture

- Da-Ai TV
- Da-Ai Radio
- Tzu Chi Magazines
- Jing-si Bookstore and Publishing

Vegetarianism

1.1
*Ethical Eating
Day*

Become a Tzu Chi Volunteer Today!
Thank You
“gan-en” 感恩 (with gratitude)

BUDDHIST TZU CHI FOUNDATION, USA

501(c)(3) EIN 94-2952782

2355 Oakland Rd, San Jose, CA 95131

408-457-6969

www.TzuChi.us

Facebook: Tzu Chi USA